Galatians 6:1-5

6 Brothers, if anyone is caught in any transgression, you who are spiritual should restore him in a spirit of gentleness. Keep watch on yourself, lest you too be tempted. 2 Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ. 3 For if anyone thinks he is something, when he is nothing, he deceives himself. 4 But let each one test his own work, and then his reason to boast will be in himself alone and not in his neighbor. 5 For each will have to bear his own load.

Sermon Outline:

- I. We are all susceptible to temptation
- II. The weight of sin is too much to carry alone
- III. Burden-bearing is at the heart of the gospel!

Life Group Leader Notes:

- Has there been a time in your life when another Christian brother or sister restored you in a spirit of gentleness? What impact did that have on you?

- Sometimes the Bible speaks of our intentional acts of sinful rebellion. In Gal. 6:1, Paul focuses on those times when sin sneaks up on us and catches us unaware. What habits/patterns might help a follower of Christ to remain watchful and avoid being "caught" or "overtaken" as best we can?

- What is the word picture for "restore" in v. 1? What value is there for the Church when an erring believer is restored to spiritual health?

- Imagine you invited an unbelieving friend to church, and he/she heard this sermon; what kinds of responses might they have had? What questions might surface for someone new to the Bible and Church?

- If you could interview Paul about this section of Galatians, what questions would you have for him? What still doesn't seem clear to you?

- Share 1 key takeaway from the message that stood out to you? Why was that memorable?
