

The cover features a low-angle photograph of a modern building with a grey, textured facade and a window with three vertical panes. The right side of the cover is a solid yellow vertical band. The title is printed on this band, with 'BIBLE READING PLAN' in dark blue and '2026' in white script. The entire design is framed by a dark teal border that forms a large rectangle with inward-pointing corners.

On December 30, 1842, the twenty-nine year old Scottish pastor, Robert Murray M'Cheyne penned a letter to his congregation in Dundee, Scotland. "My dear flock, the approach of another year stirs up within me new desires for your salvation, and for the growth of those of you who are saved... It has long been in my mind to prepare a scheme of Scripture reading so that the whole Bible might be read once by you in the year, and all might be feeding in the same portion of the green pasture at the same time." Though M'Cheyne would die in March of 1943, his Bible reading plan has nourished Christians across the globe for the past two centuries. This plan covers the entire Old Testament once and the New Testament & Psalms twice.
